HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

143rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 58

TO REQUEST THE DELAWARE FEDERAL LEGISLATORS TO SUPPORT THE "CYBER SAFETY FOR KIDS ACT OF 2006".

1 WHEREAS, the "Cyber Safety for Kids Act of 2006", hereafter referred to as "Cyber Safety Act" is supported by Senators
2 Mark Pryor of Arkansas and Max Baucus of Montana; and

3 WHEREAS, the "Cyber Safety Act" would require all websites containing inappropriate pornographic content to use an
4 appropriate, easily identifiable domain such as ".xxx"; and

5 WHEREAS, The "Cyber Safety Act" would mandate the migration of all pornographic websites to this ".xxx" domain
6 within six (6) months of the passage of this federal legislation; and

7 WHEREAS, the "Cyber Safety Act" emphasizes child protection by making a new domain designated to protect minors by
8 making it easy for parents, schools and other institutions and filtering software to voluntarily block pornographic sites from homes
9 and schools.

10 NOW, THEREFORE:

11 BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the 143rd General Assembly of the State of Delaware that Senators
12 Biden and Carper and Congressman Castle be strongly encouraged to support this federal legislation known as the "Cyber Safety
13 for Kids Act of 2006" on behalf of the Delaware House of Representatives for all the citizens of the State of Delaware.

14 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a suitably prepared copy of this Resolution be presented to each member of our 15 Federal Congressional Delegations.

SYNOPSIS

The "Cyber Safety for Kids Act of 2006" mandates all porno sites to migrate to ".xxx" so they are easy to block by those who do not want access to porno sites on their home or business computers.
